Why support Steps to Success?

Steps to Success ("Steps") supports 350 Brookline students from low-income families, with programs beginning in 3rd grade and extending through college graduation. We work to close the economic opportunity gap by providing long-term educational enrichment and support for our students, expanding their horizons, and creating pathways to post-secondary success.

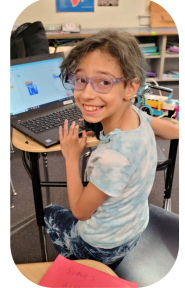

Who are Steps students?

The vast majority of Steps students live in Brookline Housing Authority (BHA) or subsidized housing. Many live in single-parent households and the majority are students of color. For over 20 years, Steps has been working to level the playing field for our students to ensure that systemic inequality does not stand in the way of their success.

What is Steps' approach to closing the opportunity gap?

Steps staff work individually with each student, guiding them at every step in their academic journey. From extended learning programs to work experience opportunities to in-depth college advising, Steps provides the long-term support our students need to achieve their goals. Through this sustained investment in the academic, extracurricular, and professional lives of our students, Steps transforms the lives of the youth we serve.

Will you sponsor the 2025 Step Up Celebration today?

Steps students are the leaders and changemakers of tomorrow. Your support for Steps is more important than ever as we address the unique needs of our community and drive positive, tangible change. Your sponsorship of the Step Up Celebration ensures that resources stay close to home, making a real impact in the lives of low-income students and working toward a more equitable Brookline.
